A Message from our President

Nya:wëh sgë:nö'

On behalf of the Seneca People, it is a pleasure to welcome you to our first Ohi:yo' Art Market, held here on our beautiful Allegany Territory.

When the Seneca Nation opened the Onöhsagwë:de' Cultural Center in 2018, part of our vision was to create a true hub for celebrating and expanding public awareness of our Native culture and traditions. Today, we are proud to see that vision come to life.

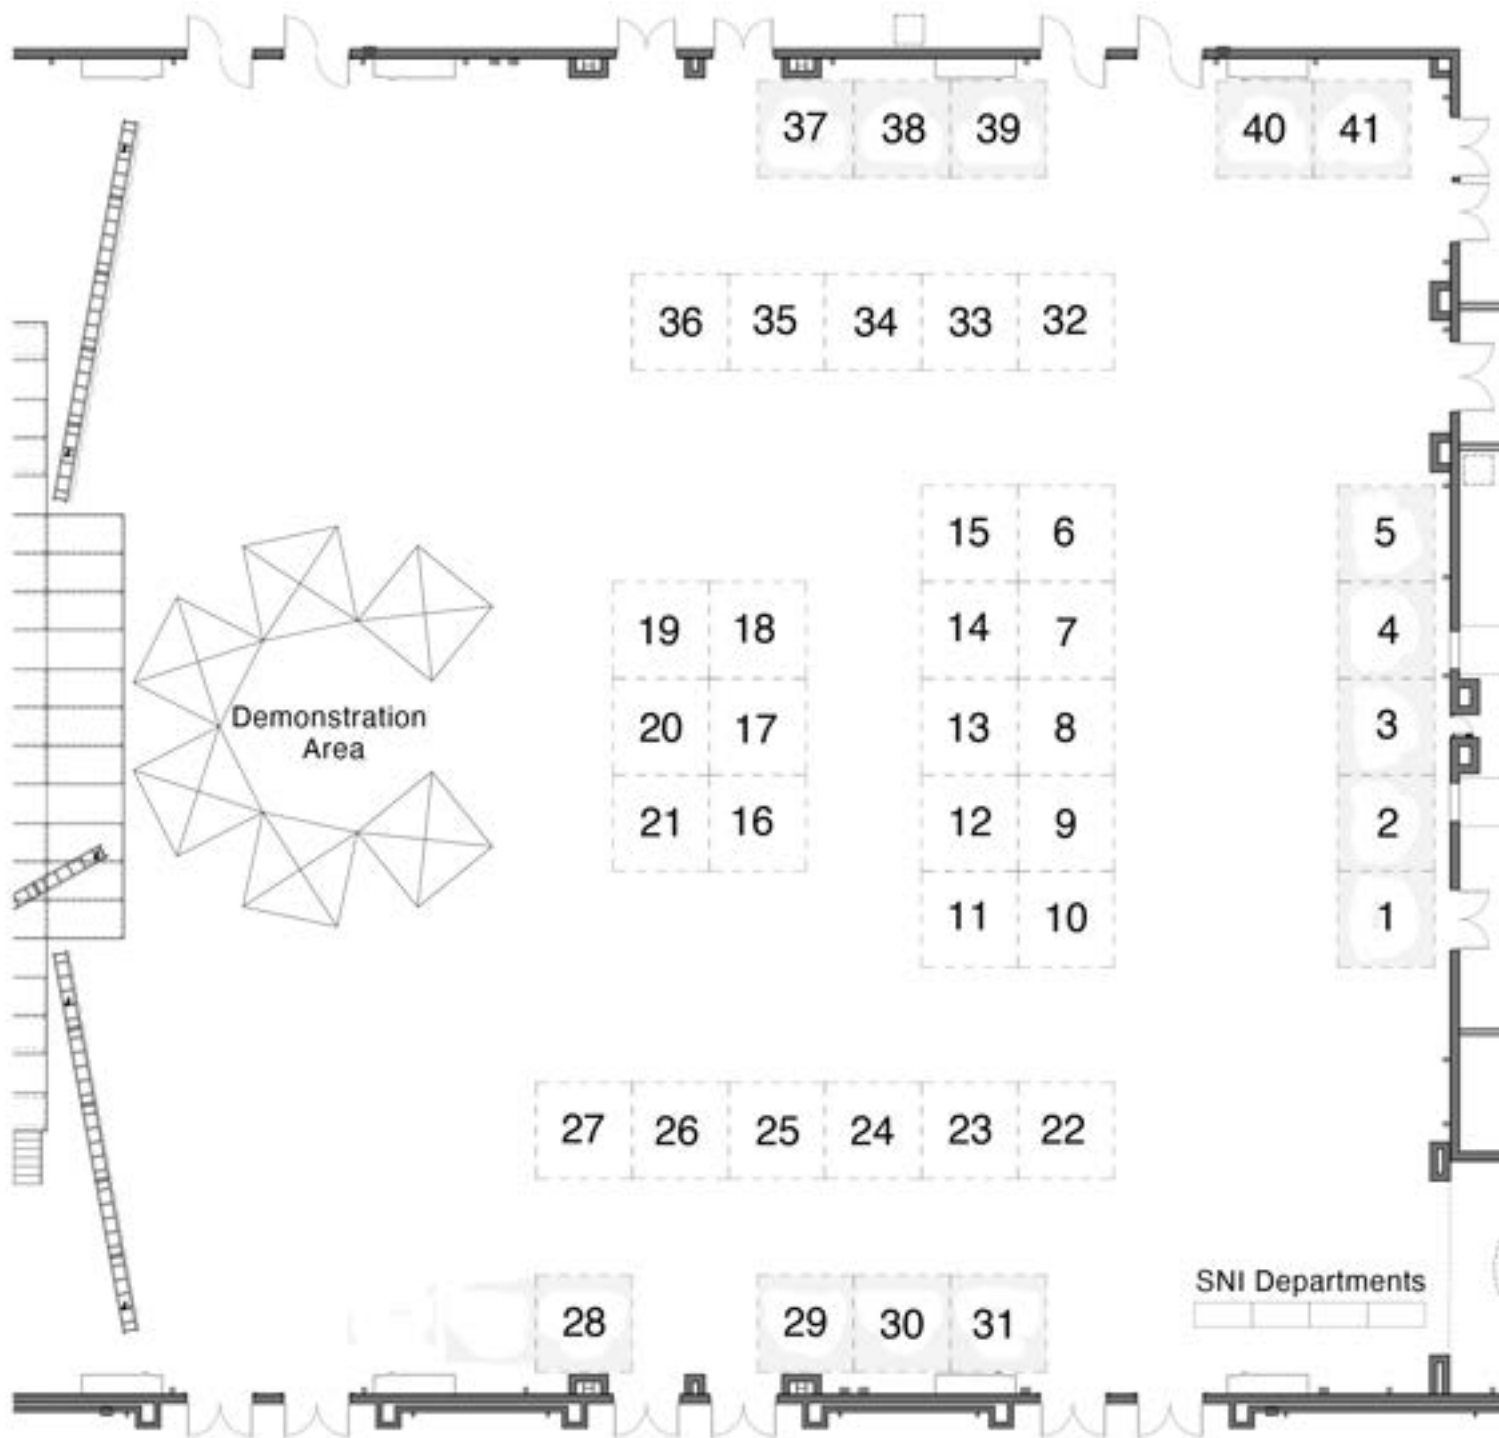

We are honored that you have taken the time to join us—to explore our museum, rich with history, and to experience the incredible artistry on display at the market. Like our people, our traditions have endured for generations and remain vibrant, living expressions of who we are. Throughout the day, artists from across Indian Country will share their work and creativity for all to enjoy. With your support and participation, we hope this market will continue to grow into one of the premier juried art markets in the Northeast.

I would like to thank and congratulate all of the artists who are sharing their culture and creativity with us. We hope all of our guests enjoy their time here, and we look forward to welcoming you back to Ohi:yo' again soon.

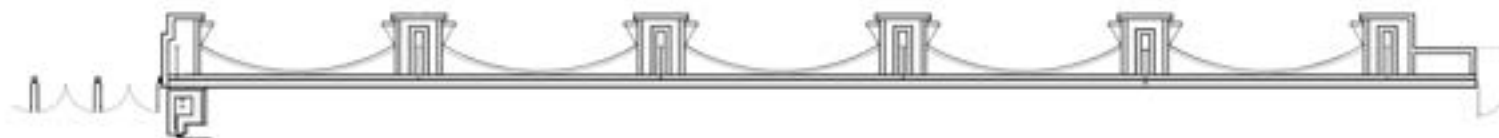

Nya:wëh,

JC Seneca

Onöhsagwë:de' Cultural Center

The Seneca-Iroquois National Museum proudly houses an extensive collection of Hodínöhšö:nih historical and traditionally designed decorative and every-day-use items and archaeological artifacts. SINM, along with the Seneca Nation Archives Department, are the safe keepers of historical documents, including articles, special publications, historical and family photographs and various multi-media productions regarding the Onödowága:' and Hodínöhšö:nih.

The name of SINM's new home, Onöhsagwë:de' Cultural Center, was selected to honor one of our greatest Seneca Language and Culture teachers Richard Johnny-John. He was often called "Gwë:de'" which is a shortened version or "nickname" from his full name. The translation of "Onöhsagwë:de'" comes from the Seneca word of "onöhsogaën" which means, "house opening." Our culture's history is rich in language, music, literature, creative arts expressions, and traditional customs. The vibrancy of the rich Seneca heritage is evident in the ongoing ceremonies, practices, and cultural events that are infused with dance, music and song, arts, crafts and traditional foods that honor and celebrate Seneca culture.

We are thrilled to welcome you to the beautiful Ohi:yo' Territory for our 2nd Annual Art Market, a celebration of Indigenous vibrancy, creativity, and resilience through the arts. A heartfelt "Nya:wëh" for joining us today, and hope you leave inspired. Thank you to the staff and volunteers for bringing this celebration to life. Thank you to the Seneca Allegany Resort & Casino for hosting us. And a huge thank you to our event sponsors, and the Seneca Nation for their support and belief in our mission to bring a world-class Art Market to this region.
